Wednesday, November 17. 1708.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 17.

Rome, October 28.

THE 22d in the Evening the Cardinal de la Tremoille had a long Audience of the Pope. Pursuant to the Resolution approv'd by all the Cardinals, 500000 Crowns in Gold, of the Sum deposited by Pope Sixtus V in the Castle of St. Angelo for the Service of the Church on a pressing Emergency, have been taken out to be apply'd to the Charge of the military Preparations. The Imperialists being provok'd at the Subjects of the Ecclesiastical State beginning to repell their Violences by Force, have renew'd their Hostilities in divers Places, since their Number came to be augmented by the return of the German Troops who were in the Army of the Duke of Savoy. In the mean Time we have Advice, that the Marquis de Prie upon repeated Orders from the Court of Vienna, has put himself on his Journey hither, taking his Way by Florence; and a Palace is fitting up for him near Montecavallo. 'Tis judg'd that the Hostilities which the Germans have begun, are partly design'd to dispose the Pope to hearken to that Marquis, and to enter into a Negotiation. The Marshal de Thesse, who arriv'd here the 20th, went this Day incognito to an Audience of the Pope, to which he was accompanied by the Cardinal de la Tremoille. Yesterday the Pope sent him a great Present of all sorts of Refreshments. Several Mortars and Cannon have been cast, and besides the Arms made here and in other Places of the Ecclesiastical State, 30000 Musquets have been bought up in Foreign Parts. A Gentleman who had before been under Condemnation for divers Crimes, has been brought hither Prisoner from Civita Vecchia, with some Soldiers accus'd of holding Intelligence with the Germans, in order to deliver up that Place to them. The new Levies are continued with all Earnestness. The Count d' Otam and the Commandeur Balbiani are return'd from viewing the Frontiers of the Kingdom of Naples, where they have put Garrisons into the Places with Ammunition necessary for their security. We have an Account that some Soldiers who were of the Garrison of Gaeta, having found Means to escape, arriv'd at Fondi, which is the last Place of the Kingdom of Naples on that Side. The Imperial Commissary would have caus'd them to be seiz'd, because they had no Passports; but they stood upon their Defence. The German Governor of Fondi sent 150 Grenadiers and some Country Militia to take them, But after the first Discharge they betook themselves to Flight, and retir'd into the Territories of the Church. On this Occasion several of the Germans were kill'd; and the Disorder was so great, that the Prince of Darmstadt repair'd thither, to prevent any further ill Consequences.

Venice, Oct. 27. They write from Ferrara, that the Pope's Troops which had come to the Rendezvous at Faenza, were march'd towards the Ferrareze, to be distributed into the Places most expos'd to the Insults of the Germans. The 13th 300 Germans march'd out of Comacchio, and attempted to land near Longastrino; but Captain Guarini who was posted behind the Digue of the Po, caus'd such a Discharge to be made upon them, that 10 of them being kill'd, the rest retir'd. They return'd thither since, and having enter'd Longastrino after some Resistance, burnt 25 Houses. The 16th they went to Ostellato, and on their approach Captain Bongiovanni of Rimini who commanded there, retir'd with 200 Soldiers. Yet the Peasants defended themselves three Hours, and kill'd divers of the Germans, who at length enter'd, and plunder'd and burnt the Village, without any regard to the Churches. Count Marsigli repair'd thither, but they were then retir'd, and he caus'd Captain Bongiovanni to be imprison'd. The Count de Boneval who commands in Comacchio, has taken Possession of several other Posts which the Peasants had abandon'd after they had kill'd 30 or 40 Germans. The Imperialists have plunder'd on the Po near Ferrara, Revel, Vigarano della Pieve, Cassana, and Mainardo; and have committed like Disorders in the Bolognese. The Marquis Bentiveglio has retir'd from Stellata, not thinking himself able to defend it. These Hostilities are the Preliminaries of the Negotiation of the Marquis de Prie who is sent to Rome by the Emperour. That Marquis arriv'd at Florence the 19th, and the 20th proceeded from thence in a Litter, without having seen the Grand Duke or any of the Princes who were at several Seats in the Country.
